

Quality Policy

Blue Star Plastics is committed to excellence in the injection molding and assembly of plastic products.

- It is the policy of Blue Star Plastics to supply products and services that fully meet the requirements and expectations of our Customers.
- We will achieve customer satisfaction and continual improvement by operating within a quality system with measurable quality objectives. This quality process will increase our organization's effectiveness and support employee involvement and supplier partnerships.